

Please pray this week for all places where there is conflict - Syria, Yemen, Lebanon, Belarus, Afghanistan, Thailand, and Nagorno Karabakh, on the borders of Armenia and Azerbaijan.

Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they will be called children of God

(Matthew 5:9)

We thank you Lord for those who seek and maintain peace in our world. We pray that today we may foster peace where we see conflict and help situations to be resolved in ways that help the differing parties to respect one another and seek unity and mutual flourishing.

In Jesus' name. Amen

'In this sad and weary time lament is therapeutic, and we can be completely real with our Father in Heaven. Yet in our lament, the path to rekindling true hope lies in the possibility of focusing on the character and immensity of God. Greater is he that is in us than the pandemic that is in the world. Join in with the ancient words of Psalm 42: 'Why are you downcast O my soul? Why so disturbed within me? Put your hope in God, for I will yet praise him, my Saviour and my God.'

18 October 2020

So here's what I want you to do, God helping you:
Take your everyday, ordinary life—your sleeping, eating, going-to-work, and walking-around life—and place it before God as an offering. Embracing what God does for you is the best thing you can do for him. Don't become so well-adjusted to your culture that you fit into it without even thinking. Instead, fix your attention on God. You'll be changed from the inside out.

Tomorrow

Do not worry about tomorrow, said the Lord.
Love drives out fear, said the Lord.

I think I understand.

So today I reach into his good earth and I sow
a little kindness here, a little gentleness there,
and all and everywhere grace.

And as the soil closes over them I know that tomorrow will contain their sweet, sacred fruit,
and I worry no more.
