

Often our inability to rest physically is because our minds are anxiously going round and round, rehearsing potential negative outcomes. This breeds fear and emotional exhaustion. Anxiety is a faith issue. God's renewal is given to those who trust in him. This trust cuts through our worries and enables us to wait expectantly for God's word or action, knowing that he rules in strength and gentleness (Isaiah 40:10-11).

If we look, we will find our days are full of 40-second spaces – waiting for a kettle to boil, for a Zoom meeting to start, for a traffic light to turn green, for a phone to be answered, etc. What if we developed recovery routines for those moments? Perhaps a moment of thankfulness, a prayer of blessing for the person we are about to speak to, or a declaration of God's lordship over our lives.

Lord, please help me to recognise the opportunities to be still and honour you in my day. Teach me to rehearse God's character and strength, instead of my worries.

(with thanks to LICC)

Easter is fast approaching and although we still won't be able to meet face to face we are planning some events to celebrate the season together.

On Good Friday we are hoping to serve take away hot drinks and hot cross buns to passers-by from the forecourt of the George Street Centre in a socially distant way. We need volunteers to help serve if this is to go ahead. If you would like to volunteer, please let Kerry or one of the deacons know. You can only volunteer with someone in your family or bubble.

On Easter Sunday we would like to offer to deliver an afternoon tea pack to those who wish to join in. Tea to include - cheese scone, plain scone (supply your own butter & jam), a couple of cakes and teabags.

We can join together to share tea on Zoom at 4 pm. If you aren't able or don't wish to do this, you can enjoy tea at home and know that your friends will be praying for you.

If you want to join in, please let Sally or Betty know. We would plan to deliver sometime on Easter Saturday.

A reminder —we are still seeking nominations from members for vacancies on the diaconate. Please ask Sally for a nomination form ASAP, ensuring you have the nominee's permission first.

We are currently running at a large deficit, due to the loss of letting fees for the GSC and the continuing need to pay utility bills and repay loans.
